

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH OF LITTLE ROCK

STRATEGIC PLAN, 2015

The four goals are broad statements that were shaped and inspired by members of UUCLR. They are entitled: Celebrate, Engage, Voice, and Challenge. These goals serve as the foundation for this long-range plan.

CELEBRATE Spiritual Diversity

- Offer regular opportunities for worship and faith development inclusive of all generations
- Develop spiritual spaces and times
- Incorporate and celebrate a variety of religious literature and teachings
- Balance intellectual, religious, and philosophical topics with heartfelt spiritual experiences

ENGAGE One Another in Creating a Transformative and Loving Community

- Be intentionally welcoming to all who come
- Use “At Peace among Ourselves: A Behavioral Covenant” in our relationships
- Develop a culture of generosity by supporting financial stewardship in our community
- Become a teaching congregation
- Develop plans for dealing with changes of professional staff

CHALLENGE Ourselves to Live Our Principles through Involvement in the Community

- Make ongoing social justice projects a deliberate part of our religious actions
- Advertise our commitment to living the Seventh Principle
- Improve our cultural and economic diversity through reaching out to our immediate neighbors
- Live our principles through action in the community

VOICE What We Are with One Another, Our Neighbors, and the World

- Maintain a consistent message in our community presence, advertising, and communications
- Live and talk about the seven principles and practice them in our daily lives
- Practice Unitarian Universalist principles through lay-leadership faith development and volunteer support
- Seed a second congregation in the greater Little Rock area that will be self-sustaining
